SATURDAY, JANUARY 1, 1859.

The Speaker took the chair according to adjournment; when,

On motion by Mr. Bledsoe, the Senate took a recess until one-quarter before 12 o'clock, A. M.

One-quarter before 12 o'clock.

The Speaker laid before the Senate a communication stating that the committee appointed to wait on the Hon. John W. Ellis, and inform him of his election to the office of Governor of the State, and to ascertain when it will suit his convenience to appear before the two Houses of the General Assembly to take the oaths office, had performed the duty assigned them, and that he would appear before the two Houses for that purpose on this day at the hour of 12 o'clock, M.

Mr. Steele, from the committee appointed to make arrangements for the inauguration of the Governor elect, submitted the following report; which was read and concurred in:

The committee appointed to make arrangements for the
